Senate Move to Probe CIA

By DAVID KRASLOW.

A Journal-American Exclusive

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A hitherto unpublicized move within the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to investigate the Central Intelligence Agency promises to precipitate an explosive dispute with President mittee. Sen. Mansfleid iost, 59

Such an investigation of an agency that lives in the nevernever land of sples and mysterious coups d'etat would be one of the most sensitive ever undertaken by Congress.

Ali moves so far have been made behind the scenes.

Committee Chairman J. William Fuibright (D-Ark.) aîready has placed on the committee's tentative agenda for this year a study of the CIA's impact on foreign policy, it was learned. This was discussed at a closed government." door meeting of the committee last week.

CIA Director William Raburn has been advised in-formally of what is affor by Sen. Engene J. McCarthy (D-minn.), a communes member and for years a prime advocate of closer congressionar supervision of the agency's activi-

Little more than a handful the CIA in any detail. It employs thousands in Washington and around the world and the hundreds of millions it appropriations for other gov-Emment departments.

'Its operations have run the gamut from the routine moniefforts to overthrow govern-

OPPOSITION EXPECTED

Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, the second-ranked Republican on the committee, forsecs "massive resistance" to its proposed inquiry from the President and others in the executive branch.

"The confrontation with the executive branch would be the vest. quite explosive" if the issue is pressed," Sen. Aiken said.

get much supervision" from Mansfield said that he has tried to "keep hands off this Congress now and thinks the issue since becoming Majority should be watched more closely from Capitol Hill, But he field was Lyndon B. Johnson, investigation.

"We taiked about this in the Senator from Massachusetts. committee last week," Sen. Aiken said. "I'm in a conflict should have closer supervision, came President. but I'm afraid of leaks in such "I am well satisfied with the prove embarrassing to our in 1963.

resolution authorizing the For-both the House and Senate. eign Relations Committee to Investigate the CIA.

SOME SUPPORT

pears to have the strong surport of Sen. Fulbright, Sen Wayne Morse (D.-Ore.), and cutive agencies. others on the 19-member comin Congress are informed about mittee. Some informed sources others, however, argue that the sures and vote for the inquiry.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, who is spends annually are hidden in in a unique and somewhat uncomfortable spot on this issue, may be a critical factor if it ever comes to a floor test.

Sen. Mansfield went on record long ago in favor of toring of foreign propaganda closer congressional supervi-radio broadcasts to clandestine sion of the CIA and he is the No. 3 Democrat on the Foreign Dominican Republic revolution does not include Sen. Fulbright Relations Committee. But he last Spring accounts, in part, also is Majority Leader, and as for the increased agitation such is expected to protect the v thin the committee to take a Administration's interests in receil look at the CIA. the Senate.

> fority Leader 10 years ago when o to that American policy failed he led the unsuccessful fight in it the Dominican Republic but the Senate to establish a joint that it failed because the Prescongressional committee oversee the CIA.

Now, publiciv at least, Sen. Mansfield is playing it close to Confirming that the investigation was discussed by the He believes the CIA "doesn't committee last week, Son.

job of auditing the CIA-more so with respect to policy than the agency's finances.

Only once, in fact, have the proponents succeeded in forcing a vote. That was in 1956 on the Mansfield resolution for creating a joint watchdog com-

Voting against Sen. Manssays he doesn't know how he then the Senate Democratic leader. Voting for the joint this. will vote on authorizing the committee was the late John F. Ecnnedy, then the Junior

JFK CHANGED MIND

Mr. Kennedy, however, on this one. I think the agency changed his mind when he bean investigation that might present arrangements," he said

The present arrangement in-Sen. McCarthy soon will voives special CIA subcommitmake the first open move when tees of the armed services and Presidents, jealous of their power over the CIA, and many on Capitol Hill have feit that Sen. McCarthy already ap-those subcommittees adequately fulfill the congressional responsibility for overseeing ex-

Sen. McCarthy and many believe that a majority could present system is cursory and withstand White House pres- far too informal for oversecing such a vital part of the government.

> Moreover, they feel that with the CIA's obvious involvement in foreign policy the foreign re- by the entire Senate. lations committees are best suited to perform the watchdog function.

The Fuibright committee's

Sen. Fulbright and some other Sen. Mansfield was not Ma members became convinced not to ident was misled by faulty advice and intelligence.

> The committee split sharply on this question—and not along party lines. Sen. Fulbright's condemnation of the Administration's Dominican policy aiso led to a substantial cooling in the personal relation ship between him and the Pres ident.

Now, Bett. Fulbright may b tast intelligence apparatus carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe lease 2004/91/16 Orack Divisions in Pulpright may be considered to the carpe and the carpe idents have been able to thwart sue which has broad meaning those who feel Congress has not only for the CIA but for done a dangerously inadequate the Foreign Relations Committea itseif.

As Sen. McCarthy put it in an interview:

"The foreign policy implications of the CIA's activities are becoming increasingly important. Foreign policy has been; in a mixed no-man's land for a long time (an apparent reference to the mixture of standard diplomacy with cloak-and-dagger CIA operations) and more people now realize

"The committee ought to assert proper jurisdiction in those areas where foreign poilcy is affected, determined and executed—and the CIA is one of those areas."

The resolution Sen. Me-Carthy soon will introduce will authorize the Forcign Relations Committee "to make a full and complete study with respect to the effects of the operations and activities of the Central Intelligence Agency he places before the Senate a appropriations committees in upon the foreign relations of the United States."

> That resolution probably will be referred to the Foreign Relations Committee, but it is not certain that it will be brought to a vote.

> With the support of a committee majority, Scn. Fulbright could go ahead with an investigation even without the resolution. But it will be available if it is decided that a formal vote is desirable.

> Favorable action by the committee on the resolution would send it to the floor for a vote

> There is speculation that to head off an investigation directed by Sen. Fuibright, the President might agree to some compromise | perhaps the creat tion of a select committee that

Prom the Lot Angelos Timos. Washington Post News Service. cle mad the land the land to the